

The Bay Area welcomes

So An

and the Vukani Mawethu Choir

"I send you all my blessings as a free Haitian woman fighting for the rights of the impoverished majority in my homeland. They may imprison my body but they will never imprison the truth I know in my soul. I will continue to fight for justice and truth in Haiti until I draw my last breath."

A Celebration of Resistance

The Haiti Action Committee presents an evening of song and solidarity in tribute to So An, including performances by herself and the Vukani Mawethu Choir.

SATURDAY, MARCH 10 - 7PM

The Uptown

(wheelchair accessible)

401 26th St., Oakland

Annette "So An" Auguste is one of Haiti's most influential singers and activists. She recently won her release from a Haitian jail, over two years after her violent arrest by US Marines on Mother's Day, 2004 during Haiti's US-backed coup d'etat. So An has fought tirelessly for the release of hundreds of Haiti's other political prisoners, to denounce ongoing UN military assaults on Haitian popular neighborhoods, and to sustain her community in resisting the ongoing US/UN occupation. Join Haiti Action Committee in welcoming this courageous Haitian leader to the Bay Area!

DONATION OF $5 - $50 REQUESTED (NO ONE TURNED AWAY FOR LACK OF FUNDS)

Proceeds will go to the Haiti Action Committee and to support grassroots organizations in Haiti.

Save the Date! • World premier of Haiti: We Must Kill the Bandits, a film by Kevin Pina
Wednesday, March 14 • Grand Lake Theater • 7PM