

Satyagraha in Palestine

Meet Bekah Wolf

Co-founder of Palestine Solidarity Project, a grassroots Palestinian organization

Bekah Wolf grew up in New Mexico in a religious Jewish family. In 2006, she moved to a Palestinian village where she worked with Palestinian farmers to organize a non-violent struggle against the Israeli occupation.

Come listen to Bekah speak about Palestinian farmers' non-violent struggle for equality and freedom.

Satyagraha is a philosophy and practice of nonviolent resistance used in India and South Africa. It influenced Martin Luther King and Nelson Mandela in their campaigns for civil rights and freedom.

Tuesday Jan 19th 7:00 PM
Sunnyvale Presbyterian Church
Fellowship Hall
728 W Fremont Ave, Sunnyvale

Thursday Jan 21st 6:30 PM
DeAnza College
Conf Room A (near campus center)
21250 Stevens Creek Blvd, Cupertino

Sponsored by:

Students for Justice (DeAnza College),
South Bay Mobilization (SBM),
Jewish Voice for Peace, Pilgrims of Ibilin,
Peace & Justice Task Force of the San Jose
Presbytery (PCUSA)

Suggested Donation: $10-$15. Students are Free!

Bekah Wolf will be asking for financial support for the Palestine Solidarity Project. If you are so inclined, don't forget to bring your checkbooks!

Contact: admin@sbm4peace.org 408 677-9137