

Who's Next?

Protestors Peacefully Occupied A Building at 75 River St.

They Asked Wells Fargo Bank to Allow a Community Center

Wells Fargo* is the largest foreclosure bankster in the U.S.

In the face of police threats and lethal force, they left peacefully

1500-2000 Homeless People are Without Shelter in Santa Cruz

300 People “Trespassed” too as Supporters, Reporters,
Negotiators, & Observers during the 3 Day Occupation

2 ½ Months Later, 11 Are Targeted to Face 8 Years in Jail

For a Peaceful Protest in a Bank Building Vacant 3 ½ Years

Prosecution Cost to Taxpayers: $100,000+

One Defendant Has Lost Housing; Another Has Tried Suicide

All Face Huge Attorney Fees Defending Against These Charges

Wells Fargo* Police Chief Vogel Has Promised “More Arrests” “Being in the Building” is now enough for Conspiracy Charges

Who's Next? You or Someone You Know ?

Drop the Charges !

No Witchhunt Against Whistleblowers !

Sign the “Conspiracy to Restore Justice in Santa Cruz” Petition

Support the Occupy Movement Locally and Nationally!

Wells Fargo* D.A. Lee: “Drop the Charges” : dao@co.santa-cruz.ca.us