

The Institute for the Critical Study of Society at the Niebyl-Proctor Marxist Library

Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library
April 27, 2014 - 10:30 am to 12:30 pm

The Struggle for Prisoners' Rights

The hunger strikes by prisoners in the Pelican Bay SHU and elsewhere have highlighted the human rights nightmare inside America's prisons. Urszula Wislanka, supporter of the Pelican Bay Hunger Strike, will speak on the prisoner's fight to hold onto their humanity in the midst of the most inhuman environment yet designed. Glenn Turner, a Spiritual Advisor to California prisoners, will add her perspective on how prisoners respond to the abusive treatment inside.

6501 Telegraph Avenue in Oakland
(between Alcatraz and 66th)

Seating is limited, so plan to come early. We start promptly.
FREE - but hat will be passed for donations to NPML

Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

A weekly discussion series inspired by our respect for the work of Karl Marx and our belief that his work will remain as important for the class struggles of the future as they have been for the past.
