

Exploring the Issues: South African vs Israeli Apartheid

Featuring Dr. Sharat G Lin & Barby and Vic Ulmer

Thursday, Oct. 9th, 7 p.m.

Peace Resource Center, 1364 Fremont Blvd., Seaside

Apart from enforcing separate and unequal spaces and rights for different peoples, how do South African and Israeli apartheid compare in terms of historical development, ideology, implementation, and resistance?

Dr. Sharat G. Lin is a research fellow at the San Jose Peace and Justice Center. He writes and lectures on global political economy, labor migration, and the Middle East. He has been involved on the ground in Israel-Palestine since 1973 and has just returned from a fact-finding trip to South Africa.

Barby and Vic Ulmer have been connected to South Africa on the ground since 1974, and recently returned from a trip to Palestine. They were election monitors during the 1st post-apartheid election in held in South Africa in 1994.

Co-sponsored by the Women's International League for Peace and Freedom and the Monterey Peace and Justice Center
