

The Institute for the Critical Study of Society at the Niebyl-Proctor Marxist Library

Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

The world was turned upside-down, if only for a quick minute, IN 1968

A look at a turbulent year, with an emphasis on the glorious month of May in Paris (and the Big Fizzle) later in June...But also: the state does murder in Mexico City, cops go berserk in Chicago at the Democratic Party Convention, word from Warsaw...and Prague will not be forgotten...

Sunday, May 1, 2016 - 10:30am to 12:30pm
6501 Telegraph Avenue, Oakland (just North of Alcatraz Ave.)

Seating is limited, so plan to come early. We start promptly.
FREE - but hat will be passed for donations to NPML

About Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

A weekly discussion series inspired by our respect for the work of Karl Marx and our belief that his work will remain as important for the class struggles of the future as they have been for the past.
