Sunday Morning at the Marxist Library

MARX & MOTHER NATURE

AN ECO-MATERIALIST CRITIQUE OF HISTORICAL MATERIALISM

For many people, the last 150 years of capitalist growth & the demise of one “socialist” experiment after another has discredited Marxism. But a reformulation of Marx & Engels’ materialist method of analysis in light of this history can produce some valuable answers to vital questions that confound those who continue to work toward replacing capitalism with a more humane social order. Our speaker will be Craig Collins, who teaches Political Science at CSU East Bay.
