One year ago, Pamela Price took office. She was elected Alameda County District Attorney on a reform platform that focused on rehabilitation and addressing police misconduct and corruption within the D.A.'s office. Less than 7 months later the recall campaign, part of a backlash to criminal punishment reforms and fear-mongering over crime by police and their political allies, began.

At this forum we will discuss what a criminal justice reform agenda looks like and examine the forces advocating a return to repressive measures that have never kept us safe. Our panelists are:

Walter Riley – civil rights attorney

Linton Johnson – Protect the Win Campaign

Please help us celebrate our return to the Starry Plough by ordering food and/or drinks.

Please arrive early to place your order so that you do not miss any of the presentations.

An open discussion will follow the presentations.

We will be accepting donations which will be divided among the sponsoring organizations.

This event is sponsored by the Alameda County Peace and Freedom Party, the Alameda County Green Party and Bay Area System Change Not Climate Change.
